

Title: Roméo le rat romantique
(Romeo, the Romantic Rat)

Format: 26 cm x 26 cm

Number of pages : 32

Cover: Hardcover and softcover

Target Group : 3 years and up

Publication : 1997

Retail Price : $18.95/€12.50 (hardcover) $9.95 (softcover)

Description :

Romeo fell in love with Juliette at first sight. To impress her, he travels the world in search for an innovative gift worthy of her. He uses his fruitful imagination and goes through all kinds of adventures to win the heart of his beloved Juliette by dressing up as a squirrel in order to bring to her a worthy gift...peanuts !!

Information:

- Themes: love, adventure, perseverance
- Romeo the romantic rat falls head over heels in love with Juliette.
- The duo of Carole Tremblay and Dominique Jolin offers us a tender and hilarious story.
- Colourful words and funny illustrations: a clearly adorable book.

Carole Tremblay, Author

Her novels and picture books are fun for children and a surprise for their parents. Humour is forever present. The young pirate Marie-Baba sinks ships, Roméo the rat dresses up as a squirrel to bring back peanuts to his dear Juliette, and terrible baby Victor also called Destructotor, destroys everything in his path. She showcases the importance of illustrations and her close relationship with Dominique Jolin who has illustrated many of her books.

Finalist for the Mr. Christie Book Award

Roméo, le rat romantique

Text : Carole Tremblay

Illustrations : Dominique Jolin

ISBN: 2-7625-8766-2 (rigide)

ISBN: 2-7625-8705-0 (souple)

